COLLINS CEMETERY, west end of Godman Ave., Muncie, Indiana.

History: On Feb. 25th 1847 Thomas Collins deeded to school district No. 3 in Center Township, Delaware Co., Ind., a tract of land of about three acres to be used as a free burial ground, for any in or out of the district. This deed also included a strip of land ten feet wide extending from the public road to said burial tract to be used as a driveway. The care and management of the burial place was provided for in the deed by three trustees chosen by the citizens of district No. 3.

The deed was made Feb. 25, 1847, and recorded Feb. 17, 1858. It was signed by Thomas Collins, Susan Collins, William Collins, and Thomas W. Collins. Although the present deed was made in 1847, indications are that it was then a cemetery. It may have been an Indian burial ground. The date of the oldest marked stone is 1833, on a Nottingham stone.

At least 3 soldiers of the Civil War are buried there: John Shafer, John Tom, and Jacob Warfel. One soldier of the Revolutionary War is said to be there but this is doubtful.

The Collins cemetery was managed for years by the three trustees, but eventually the citizens failed to choose new members, then the place grew up in weeds and brush for lack of interest. On June 9, 1928 the Collins Cemetery Association was incorporated. It is now a beautiful spot on a high bank of White River.
